

The following section features attorneys who have demonstrated leadership qualities and have achieved the AV Preeminent rating by Martindale-Hubbell®.

Martindale-Hubbell®, the company that has long set the standard for lawyer ratings, has supplied ALM with a list of Top Rated Lawyers who have achieved an AV® Preeminent® Peer Review Rating, the highest rating in legal ability and ethical standards. To create this section, Martindale-Hubbell® tapped its comprehensive database of Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ to identify lawyers who have been rated by their peers to be AV® Preeminent™.

Martindale Hubbell Peer Review Ratings are driven by the confidential opinions of lawyers and members of the judiciary who receive invitations from Martindale-Hubbell®, via an online survey or by mail, to provide reviews of lawyers of whom they have professional knowledge.

A complete directory of all AV® Preeminent™ lawyers can be found online at Lawyers.com® and Martindale.com, in the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory in print and CD-ROM formats, and online through the LexisNexis® services and at lexis.com. ELITE LAWYERS OF THE SOUTH

NORTH CAROLINA SMITHFIELD

ALLEN H. WELLONS

Allen Wellons has spent his career representing and serving those most in need. Graduating from UNC Chapel Hill in 1971, he soon thereafter married the love of his life, Cissie, and began law school at NC Central University. After passing the bar exam in August 1975, Allen, Cissie and their growing family moved to Asheville to begin his legal career. While in Asheville, Allen brought a class action lawsuit against the State of North Carolina to fight against unconstitutional overcrowding at the Craggy State Prison. The case was dismissed at the district court level, but Allen won a reversal in the 4th circuit court of appeals and the case ultimately led to institutional changes in the prison system.

The Wellons family returned home to Smithfield in 1979 where Allen founded Wilkins & Wellons. In 1984 he represented Citizens for Preserving Farmland Inc in a federal environmental action seeking injunctive relief from the condemnation of farmland for the future interstate I-40. These efforts helped to ensure that in the future prime farmland would be protected under the Environmental Protection Act of 1969.

In 1996 Allen was elected to the North Carolina Senate and worked tirelessly on behalf of underserved voices throughout the state. During his last term in office, Allen was the architect co-sponsor of the 2002 Judicial Reform Act, which successfully made judges in the state a non-partisan elected office and introduced public financing of their campaigns, ushering in a decade of judicial reform.

Since leaving the North Carolina General Assembly, Allen has returned to practicing law in his home of Smithfield, continuing to represent the people's voices who most needed to be heard.

Tefteller Law PLLC is an East Texas trial firm representing Texans across the state who have been severely injured or killed in commercial vehicle accidents, oilfield accidents, auto accidents, or through dangerous conditions. In recent years, the firm has demonstrated an impressive level of expertise in brain injury cases.

As explained by Todd Tefteller, the founder of the firm, "My granddaddy taught me that 'a man should never forget where he came from, no matter where he ends up.' This philosophy has allowed our firm to achieve an impressive level of success. Staying true to our East Texas roots and being plugged into our local communities allows us to relate better with jurors anywhere and speak with them as people, friends and neighbors—not talk down to them from some legal ivory tower." The results have been seen in Tefteller Law's ability to go across Texas and obtain substantial settlements and verdicts in tough cases when insurance companies or big corporations refuse to do the right thing.

Tefteller states that "the firm's 'dig in and fight' mentality illustrates why some of our lawyers have been featured in numerous national and international publications, radio and television programs." Tefteller Law attorneys have appeared, provided commentary, or been featured on Fox News, CNBC, ABC's World News Tonight, NBC's Nightly News, and CBS' Nightly News, along with The New York Times, Time Magazine, The Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, and National Public Radio, among others.

FLORIDA TAMPA

WILLIAM F. "CHIP" MERLIN, JR.

Attorney Chip Merlin has grown the Merlin Law Group into one of the largest national firms representing policyholders in disputes against their own insurance companies since its founding in 1985. Advising CNN, Fox News, Fox Business News, and local television outlets around the country, he's been dubbed "the Babe Ruth of Hurricane Claims" and "the Master of Disaster" by the press.

Former chair for the Bad Faith Insurance Litigation Group with the American Association for Justice, he is a preeminent insurance attorney and consumer advocate with a focus on commercial and residential property insurance claim disputes and bad faith insurance litigation.

Chip has been blogging about helping consumers with their claims for more than ten years in his Property Insurance Coverage Blog. He wrote his book, Pay Up! Preventing A Disaster With Your Own Insurance Company, to give policyholders advice on handling their property insurance claims.

When not taking on big insurance companies, the former marathon runner can be found racing sailboats.
