MICHAEL J. PIKE

Michael Pike is the Managing Partner of Pike and Lustig, LLP located in West Palm Beach and Miami. The Firm has 8 lawyers and several support staff, and a sophisticated corporate and business litigation department involved in high-stakes litigation through Florida Federal and State Courts. Pike is known for aggressively and methodically trying several cases, including arbitration, jury and bench trials. For many years, Pike and Lustig has represented notable law firms in connection with employment and partnership disputes, Florida Bar Complaints and other business related matters. Pike is known as the "lawyer's lawyer."

The Firm also represents several medical practices throughout the State of Florida in connection with employment disputes, drafting of corporate documents, physician practice management and employment agreements along with billing guidance regarding CPT codes. This area of law often involves the representation and counseling of orthopedic surgeons, spine surgeons, neurologists and other medical professionals.

Over the years, Pike and Lustig's trial experience, combined with its corporate knowledge, has assisted businesses in taking preventative measures to avoid litigation altogether because, as Pike says, "we have seen how it unfolds at trial." Pike and Lustig is no stranger to the courtroom. Pike has been lead counsel in several trials, and achieved one of the largest jury verdicts in the Southern District of Florida involving willful-copyright infringement for $2.5 million.

Pike and Lustig handles derivative actions, shareholder disputes, partner disputes, non-compete disputes, contract disputes, real estate disputes, trademark and copyright disputes, appeals in both State and Federal Courts, Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) – State and Federal, and Federal overtime cases. Pike was also selected as a Top 100 High Stakes Litigator and is AV Rated. Visit the firm at www.pikelustig.com
