Established in Tulsa in 1933, Conner & Winters, LLP is a step above in legal counsel, responsiveness, and client service. We're one of the leading, full-service law firms in the region, and we attribute our success to the diversity and hard work of our attorneys and staff, as well as the breadth and versatility of legal services we offer.

With offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Northwest Arkansas, Dallas, Houston, and Washington D.C., our attorneys serve a broad range of local, state, regional, national, and international clients. Our clients include locally owned companies, multi-national corporations and individuals, estates and trusts, charitable foundations, institutions, municipalities, and other public-sector organizations.

Throughout our history, we have attracted exceptional graduates from nationally prominent law schools as well as important regional and state law schools. The firm fosters an open environment, where attorneys are comfortable sharing ideas and working together. This approach allows us to better focus on our clients' needs while always maintaining unparalleled professional integrity.

We congratulate our women attorneys who have been selected as 2022 Women Leaders in the Law. They are Anne B. Sublett, Beverly K. Smith, Elise Dunitz Brennan, Gentra Abbey Sorem, Jeanette C. Timmons, Katherine G. Coyle, Melodie Freeman-Burney, Nancy E. Vaughn, and Teresa Meinders Burkett.

DC WASHINGTONRACHEL TRINDER

Rachel Trinder has over three decades of experience as an aviation and aerospace advocate in Washington, DC, advising airports, air carriers, helicopter operators, financial institutions, governments, civil aviation authorities, manufacturers, suppliers, and other entities on an extensive range of domestic and international aviation and aerospace matters. She is a national and international leader in her field, with a very strong record of positive results for her clients.

Rachel has extensive, in-depth experience in the regulatory, government affairs, commercial and legislative issues affecting the aviation and aerospace industries, including a broad range of matters before the U.S. Departments of Transportation, State and Commerce, the Federal Aviation Administration, and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. This includes airport and air carrier licensing and operations matters, air services development and proceedings, international bilateral agreements, FAA audits, and airport facilitation.

Born in Africa and educated in the U.K. and the U.S., with law degrees from Oxford University and the University of Virginia, Rachel's primary focus is on highly focused strategic thinking, problem solving and advocacy. She believes in a personalized, hands-on approach that involves analyzing client needs and concerns, and developing a plan designed to achieve a successful result as speedily and cost effectively as possible. This may involve addressing issues at the Federal agency or congressional level, or the solution may be commercial, operational, transactional, or based on a combination of approaches, including mediation, arbitration and/or litigation. Rachel has extensive experience in all these disciplines, including in the international arena. She brings to the table a deep well of knowledge about the aviation and aerospace industries that enables her to bring critical perspective to any problem.

DAVIDA S. PERRY

For over 35 years, Davida S. Perry, Managing Partner at Schwartz Perry & Heller LLP has been the go-to legal counsel for employees experiencing sexual harassment and other forms of workplace discrimination including age, race, pregnancy, sexual orientation, disability, religion, national origin, gender and gender identity. Ms. Perry has been a long-time advocate against sexual harassment even before the groundswell of support for the #MeToo Movement. She has achieved landmark decisions, namely Thoreson, where the court ruled that sexual harassment can be proven by the victim's testimony alone and Bracker, where the appellate court held that the NYC Human Rights Law was constitutional. This paved the way for victims of discrimination working in NYC to avail themselves of one of the most protective and comprehensive human rights laws in the country. Ms. Perry had notable victories at trial including in McIntyre v. Manhattan Ford, where the jury awarded the plaintiff $6.6 million in damages. Ms. Perry has been a SuperLawyers recipient for more than a decade and her opinions have appeared in national and local publications including Time Magazine, Newsweek, Law 360, Thomson Reuters, CNBC, New York Daily News and New York Post. Ms. Perry is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell, a designation that confirms she has been rated as having the strongest legal ability and highest ethical standards. In 2020, Ms. Perry became an employment law mediator in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York. Since 2021, Ms. Perry has served as an arbitrator and mediator with the American Arbitration Association.
