MAURICE GRANT

Maurice Grant is the founder of Grant Law, LLC. He is a nationally recognized and highly respected attorney who believes in providing superior client service with unwavering integrity and an impressive record of results.

Mr. Grant specializes in business and commercial litigation, employment, healthcare, and real estate. He successfully represents clients ranging from large Fortune 500 companies, to government entities, healthcare entities, medium and small business, and individuals.

Mr. Grant is a former judicial law clerk for Justice Calvin C. Campbell of the Illinois Appellate Court.

During his career, Maurice has served the legal community as a member of the Board of Managers, Chair of the Solo and Small Firm Committee, the Finance Committee, Pro Bono General Counsel, and Treasurer for the Chicago Bar Association.

A licensed member of the Illinois Bar United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Seventh Circuit Court and the United States Supreme Court, Maurice has been recognized on the Super Lawyer list by legal industry publication, Super Lawyer Magazine, and Legal Lawyer every year from 2012 to 2023, for his accomplishments in commercial litigation. In 2013, he was honored as a Business Leader of Color by Chicago United. He was also named a Trailblazer in the National Law Journal in 2023.

Maurice Grant was honored most recently by the Chicago Bar Association as recipient of the prestigious Earl Burrus Dickerson Award. The award, established in honor of the late Earl B. Dickerson, the first African-American to receive a law degree from the University of Chicago, is presented to lawyers and judges who have fought for justice and equality throughout their legal careers.

Maurice has been featured in prestigious Forbes[®] Magazine (June 2017 issue, "How One Minority-Led Law Firm is Climbing to the Top"), and in Leading LawyersSM Magazine (2017 article, "Maurice Grant: Shattering Perceptions in the Legal Industry".)

In addition, Maurice has served as an adjunct faculty member at the Illinois Institute of Technology Chicago Kent College of Law where he taught Legal Drafting General Practice to second year law students. He also was a member of the PLI ("Practicing Law Institute") faculty.

Maurice graduated from the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law. Prior to attending law school, he earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from DePaul University and attended graduate school, at DePaul University majoring in Europe and African History.
